

Australian Aquatic Biological Pty Limited

A.C.N. 127 431 118

Project: 100005

The Field Guide to the Freshwater Crayfish of NSW Australia

Publication

This is a large detailed full colour guide to the 43 different species of freshwater crayfish found in NSW. This book is for the serious scientist, it explains in detail how to find and identify each species in NSW and how to distinguish between them. It is A4 size full colour, hard covered 256 page book that offers information on habitat, activities, description, conservation status, distribution, morphological features and how to distinguish between species to identify each species of NSW. Full colour photographs of every species will allow all enthusiasts and researchers a better opportunity to identify the various species found in NSW. This book is currently in draft form with completion and publication expected ????????

ISBN: 978 0 9805144-2-1 256 pages Full Colour, A4 hard cover.,

Status

This publication is currently on hold.

For NSW one Gramastacus species, two Cherax species and three Euastacus species are currently under description and until such time as these descriptions are published this book is on hold.

Update 2011:

One new NSW Euastacus species has been described;

Coughran J, McCormack RB (2011) Euastacus morgani sp. n., a new spiny crayfish (Crustacea, Decapoda, Parastacidae) from the highland rainforests of eastern New South Wales, Australia. ZooKeys 85 : 17 – 26.

Additionally;

One new NSW Gramastacus, one Euastacus and one Cherax species will have descriptions published in 2012.

